Trailer Registration in Texas. All non-farm trailers operating on public roads require registration, but only certain ones require titling. The exact requirements vary by trailer type and weight. This includes a homemade trailer. Trailers with a gross weight of 7,500 lbs. or more must pass an annual safety inspection.

If the ABS pump motor runs with an external 12V source most likely the issue is with the ABS electronics and this will be a more expensive repair (google for ABS repair, there are specialized companies that will do the repair for you). In my case, the motor didn't work and while searching through the internet, I stumbled upon this PDF in German which explains how to fix a broken ABS motor.
