An Exploration of Our Hominoid - Hominid Evolution. It is no surprise that the credibility of interpretations attempting to explain, reconstruct and position any organism in a Tree of Life - despite applying every advanced paleontological method available - diminishes exponentially the further back in time we go.

Intensive farming involves various types of agriculture with higher levels of input and output per cubic unit of agricultural land area. It is characterized by a low fallow ratio, higher use of inputs such as capital and labour, and higher crop yields per cubic unit land area. This contrasts with traditional agriculture, in which the inputs per unit land are lower.
