Urban fiction, also known as street lit or street fiction is a literary genre set in a city landscape; however, the genre is as much defined by the socio-economic realities and culture of its characters as the urban setting. The tone for urban fiction is usually dark, focusing on the underside of city living. Profanity, sex, and violence are usually explicit, with the writer not shying away ...

Miranda James is the pseudonym of Dean James, a seventh-generation Mississippian recently returned home after over thirty years in Texas. A mystery fan since the age of ten, he wrote his first novel at the ripe old age of twelve. The only copy of The Mystery of the Willow Key vanished years ago, but since it was highly derivative of the Nancy Drew and Trixie Belden mystery series, that's ...

Note: The phrase "alternative news" is defined on this page as news which does not come from major corporate news providers. Corporate providers, like CNN, CBS, NBC, etc., are easily accessed—in fact, hard to avoid—and so are not listed here. The downside of most mainstream media is that they do not do investigative journalism, they just repeat corporate and government news releases uncritically.
